Her is the well known Lunar Roadstar 726, a 6 berth motorhome with 4 belted seats. Built on the Fiat Ducato 2.8TDI engine, it has a 3,500kg gross weight and a 416kg payload as standard.

Above the cab is a large overcab double bed. Behind the cab is the dinette which turns into a large double bed and carries two people with belts. In the centre is the bathroom opposite the kitchen and the U shaped rear lounge at the back which also turns into a large double bed.

This particular motorhome comes equipped with Omnistor awning, back box, roof rack and ladder, reversing camera, electric mirrors and windows plus much more.
